Adjutant General,
Disabled American Verterans
of the World War,
Cincinnati, Ohio.

Dear Sir:

We understand that your organization has a badge, and would like very much to get one of these for our collection. Would you be good enough to tell me how I may obtain a specimen.

The American Numismatic Society has one of the largest collections of war medals and decorations in existence, and we would be glad to add to it one of the medals issued to the Disabled American Veterans of the World War.

Very truly yours,

Curator.
